LAST WEEK'S

MAN OF THE MATCH

Ross Venus used his experience to grab the game winner at home and Saturday, and took the man of the match as a result. On the road, Cam Hamill scored our only goal and was given the award off the back of that.

RIO GRINELL-PARKE

PLAYER PROFILE

Hailing from London, Rio Grinell-Parke is a forward known for his agility and scoring capabilities. Born on February 25, 1999, Rio stands at 5'11" and weighs 176 lbs, shooting from the left. His youth team was the Bracknell Bees. Rio's top-scoring season was during the 2019-20 campaign with the Milton Keynes Lightning in the NIHL, where he accumulated 29 points in 45 games, comprising 13 goals and 16 assists. With a blend of speed and puck-handling skills, Grinell-Parke is a valuable asset to Milton Keynes Lightning, bringing both experience and energy to the ice.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Saturday night at home against the defending league champs we were focused and ready to play from the puck drop. We played fast and were sound defensively and structurally. I felt we were in control the whole game and we put them away in the third. It was a great Saturday evening with the crowd behind us.

Sunday was pretty much the exact opposite. I had a good feeling going in. I thought we were prepared and ready to battle. The ref's call a penalty and they bury on the first shot. A few bounces went their way early then it was playing catch up from early in the game. These things happen in sport, but are never easy to swallow. It's how we respond and stick together. Looking forward to getting back to work this week.
