LAST WEEK'S

MAN OF THE MATCH

Mack Stewart scored a thrilling solo goal on Saturday to earn the MoM at home vs. Solway. On the road in Telford, Jordan Hedley kept things tight including in a high pressure 6 on 5 sequence, to take us over the line for the win.

ROSS GREEN

PLAYER PROFILE

Born on February 19, 1992, in Chelmsford, Ross Green is a seasoned defenceman who has been a stalwart for the Milton Keynes Lightning. Standing at 5'11" and weighing 163 lbs, Green shoots right and has been associated with the Milton Keynes Storm as his youth team. His most notable points scoring season was the 2022-23 campaign with the Milton Keynes Lightning in the NHL, where he registered 23 points in 56 games, scoring 4 goals and assisting 19 times. With a wealth of experience and a knack for contributing both defensively and offensively, Ross Green is an invaluable asset to the Lightning's blue line.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Saturday at home against Solway we had an average first period even though we were up 3-1 going into the second. I didn't think our mental focus was there and for some reason we didn't have our legs. We scored some individual skilful goals, but overall I was not very happy with our performance, especially at home. We got the two points and needed to have a better showing the next night.

In Telford on Sunday was a playoff type game where we all stuck together and battled for 60 minutes to get the two points. Close games like that on the road against a tough opponent is exactly what our team needed. We grew as a team and I was happy to get four points on the weekend. We need to have a better showing at home and play with some tenacity to get the crowd and momentum behind us.
