NIHL TITLES

In the Planet Ice National Ice Hockey League there are 3 titles up for grabs every season.

The National Ice Hockey League Champions

Finishing top of the League which is 54 games from September to March.

The National Cup Winners

This is a competition where the first home and first away game played between teams is counted into this competition. The top 4 teams play the Semi-Finals, Home and Away. MKL won their Semi-Final, and have qualified for the National Cup Final. This will be held Away and Home against Hull Seahawks. Dates TBC.

The NIHL Playoff Champions

This is a mini competition that happens after the NIHL League competition is finished, and the climax is the Finals Weekend in Coventry on the 27th and 28th April. The top 8 teams that finish in the league, will go into two round robin competitions the first 3 weekends in April. The top 2 teams from each group progress to the Finals Weekend, where the Semi-Finals are played on Saturday and the Grand Final on Sunday.

AWAY TEAMS NOTABLE PLAYERS

A standout player for the Hull Seahawks, Emil Svec has shown exceptional performance this season with an impressive tally of 38 goals and 39 assists across 38 games, accumulating a total of 77 points. Svec's ability to perform under pressure is highlighted by his 32 even-strength goals and 26 even-strength assists, alongside his contribution to the power play with 5 goals and 12 assists.

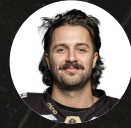

Chamberlain has been a pivotal force for the Seahawks, contributing significantly with 22 goals and 34 assists over 32 games, summing up to 56 points. His robust playing style is further underscored by his 76 penalty minutes, indicating his physical presence on the ice. With 17 goals scored at even strength and a substantial 27 even-strength assists, Chamberlain's versatility and ability to set up plays make him a considerable threat.

Finley Ulrick has proven to be a valuable asset for the Seahawks, showcasing his skills with 21 goals and 30 assists in 37 games, contributing to a total of 51 points. His balanced scoring ability is reflected through his 13 even-strength goals and 23 even-strength assists, along with a solid performance on the power play.

MAN OF THE MATCH

JORDAN HEDLEY

PLAYER PROFILE

Thursday, for the Semi-Final of the National Cup against Swindon Wildcats saw Liam Stewart take the man of the match, where we qualified for the Final. Saturday, away to Bristol, saw Ben Brown get MOM in the 10-3 road win. Sunday, back at home to Swindon, Rory Herrman took the honour in the 7-2 win.

Born in Walsall, England on August 7, 1996, Jordan Hedley is a formidable presence in the net, standing tall at 6'3" and weighing 194 lbs. As a goaltender, Hedley catches left and began his youth career with the Milton Keynes Storm. His most notable season was with the Milton Keynes Lightning in the NIHL during the 2022-23 season. Over 46 games, he maintained a goals against average (GAA) of 3.25 with a save percentage (SV%) of .897, achieving 3 shutouts and securing 33 wins against 13 losses. With his impressive stats and dedication, Hedley is a crucial player for the team.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Last weekend was a huge weekend for us and I'm proud of the effort we put in. I was excited to see how this group would react in a do or die situation on Thursday and we didn't disappoint. It was a great game of hockey and I was very pleased with the structure and determination in that game.

Saturday in Bristol the main focus was to play at the same level while keeping it simple and the rest should take care of itself. We were rewarded with some nice opportunities through our forecheck and discipline.

On Sunday, both teams were running on fumes and it came down to who had more left in the tank. We had a decent start and a sloppy second period. Joe and I challenged the guys going into the third and we took over from there.
