COACH'S COMMENTS

A four-point weekend is always great. We faced two structured teams that at times made it difficult to create chances. We were able to play four lines for most of the weekend and that paid benefits, especially in the third period on Sunday. The Saturday game against the Bees we had a great start, played physical and battled through some adversity. We stuck to the game plan and got the two points in a tough place to play.

Sunday against Solway there were times of the game that I thought was sloppy and just needed a spark. We knew it wasn't good enough so we came out flying in the third and had one of the best periods of the year so far. Despite running into some penalty trouble we stuck to the course and took over five on five. The fans were great so let's keep this train rolling.
