

PRIDE NIGHT 2025

This year marks the fourth consecutive year that ice hockey clubs across the EIHA are proudly participating in Pride Week, reinforcing the message that "Hockey is for Everyone."

Following two successful Pride events at MK Lightning, where funds were raised for You Can Play (2023) and Hockey is Diversity (2024), we're excited to continue supporting inclusion and diversity.

Tonight, MK Lightning will celebrate Pride with players wearing special edition jerseys, showcasing our commitment to raising awareness for the LGBTQ+ community and promoting a welcoming environment for everyone, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

We hope you enjoy the celebrations.

He also contributed 6 points (2 goals, 4 assists) in 6 playoff games, demonstrating his ability to perform in crucial moments. COACH'S COMMENTS

Saturday our execution was lacking from certain guys. We had some breakaways and great chances early and didn't bury allowing them to hang around. I liked our third period and our discipline throughout. It was an exciting finish on a great pass from Ross and a great finish from Cownie. The rink was rocking and great to be a part of. Sunday was a tale of battling things out of our control and a goalie playing a great game. We can do a better job of getting to the tough areas and burying our chances. Getting to the net and causing chaos and traffic will be the focus this week. We need to put this behind us and play with confidence, focus and structure.
