Chris Jones continued to be a reliable offensive force for the Swindon Wildcats during the 2023/24 season, amassing 54 points (19 goals, 35 assists) in 54 games. As one of the team's alternate captains, Jones also played a vital role in the playoffs, where he added 3 points in 7 games. His leadership and consistent two-way play make him an indispensable part of the Wildcats' lineup as they head into the 2024/25 season.

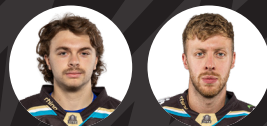

Glenn Billing had a stellar 2023/24 season with the Swindon Wildcats, leading the team with 70 points (31 goals, 39 assists) in 54 games. Billing's vision and scoring touch were key to Swindon's offense, and he continued to deliver in the playoffs, adding 4 points in 7 games. His ability to create opportunities and finish plays makes him one of the top centers in the NIHL, and he will be a crucial player for the Wildcats moving forward.

Edward Bradley joined the Swindon Wildcats for the 2024/25 season after splitting the previous year between the Bristol Pitbulls and Berkshire Bees. In 2023/24, Bradley tallied 40 points (9 goals, 31 assists) over 47 games, showcasing his ability to contribute offensively from the blue line. Bradley's strong skating and puck-moving skills will be vital for Swindon as they look to strengthen their defensive corps this season.

COACH'S COMMENTS

What a weekend of hockey that was. These are the type of games you want to be a part of. We played hard all weekend and the effort and compete was there. We had 10 bad minutes on Saturday that cost us. It was a pretty even weekend overall, it just comes down to the details and execution. The crowd was awesome it's a shame we couldn't get it done for them.

The game in Leeds on Sunday was some of the best hockey we have played. Everyone bought in and laid it on the line for the 2 points. It was a team win and I am proud of everyone's work rate on the weekend.

Another huge test against a dangerous Swindon team. We will continue to push to improve in certain areas of the game and hopefully play with the same effort and workrate.
