COACH'S COMMENTS

What an experience it was for our guys to play in such a big game in front of our amazing fans. We came up short and it is a feeling I don't want to experience again. The game came down to which team made the least amount of mistakes. We had more chances than them but we just didn't bury. I am excited to get our full team back and come back with a vengeance. We have a group in there that has been through a lot and fought hard throughout the year. We owe the fans our complete dedication, commitment and desire to do whatever it takes to hold up a trophy at the end of the year. We need to get the momentum going heading into the playoffs and hit the ground running.
